Two Lips Go Shopping by Lizz Murphy, Spinifex Press. Again this poet takes us into the world of women's lives, under the guise of shopping. There are poems in the collection about shopping, about attending clearance sales at properties, about telemarketing, but there are also poems that take us to darker places, where women encounter the theft of their newborn babies and genital mutilation. But there are also some that take us away: "Fishwife: In my ocean dreams, I swim the silk sea, the blue lil Get this from a library! Two lips went shopping.
