It was literally a postcard from Hell, and Andy Derain would have been smart to ignore it.

But when the stunning Princess Astrid Montebello cried out for help from that infernally named village on Grand Cayman Island, Andy could not resist. Besides, he had already infuriated a local mob boss by selling pictures of the boss's bullet-riddled son, so a trip to the Caribbean - even one risking the jealous fury of his formidable fiancée - seemed a sensible response. Little did Andy realize that this little excursion would land him smack in the middle of vicious drug smugglers, a nasty socialite bored with the money that legitimate business could bring her, the corpses of some of New York's most beautiful women, and a lovely, adventurous airplane pilot named Glory.
