An all-singing, all-dancing celebration of ordinary life and death. Single mum Emma confronts the highs and lows of life with a cancer diagnosis; that of her son and of the real people she encounters in the daily hospital grind. Groundbreaking performance artist Bryony Kimmings creates fearless theatre to provoke social change, looking behind the poster campaigns and pink ribbons at the experience of serious illness. Training Egypt's breast surgeons in techniques of plastic surgery is giving survivors a better quality of life and transforming women's attitudes towards the disease. A Pacifist's Guide to the War On Cancer. Bryony Kimmings' funny and moving musical about cancer is coming to Newcastle.
