Long ago when the United States was in formation and the white man was moving across the lands, there were times when the Native American Indians would abduct people. When they would take children, it is said in various old documents and writings that the children were at times, taken into the tribe and raised as a Native American Indian. This heartwarming story is based on a true story with some fabrication of details that were omitted in the original historic words. The basic event is true and it does tie to history of the time frame, however, this book should be considered fiction. This is the story of Abigail. Kies uit meer dan 3000 Topmerken bij Conrad!
