To live is to experience, to observe and to contribute. Life itself is a battle for which we must be equipped; it changes like the seasons of the year. Experience different aspects and realities of life through this thought-provoking collection of poetry, immerse yourself in the language, steel yourself to face the ideas it considers. We should not regard ourselves as victims of our circumstances but rather strive to emerge victors. 'So, keep on climbing up that hill, Though you have no strength; Tell yourself you'll make it And live for the day When you do.'
