I loved Sunset Island, Paradise in the Pacific by Robert Plattner. This gentle story of shipwrecked, stranded elderly cruise ship passengers resonated with me. Their resourcefulness, camaraderie and ability to rise to the challenges of a new lifestyle were encouraging. The way they used their skills acquired over a lifetime were a reminder of the value of elders to a society. Although they chose to remain on their peaceful island, those same skills are of value to the greater society.

Thank you,
