When havoc rains, Havoc Reigns. A war unlike any other. The Havoc became, the ultimate test for human survival. Every man, woman, and child was at risk, from every other man, woman, or child. A billion people died in the Global Wars before the Havoc.

Four billion died in the Havoc and two billion more in its aftermath. Now, thirty years after the Havoc, just when humanity thought war was a thing of the past... Our society is evolving, and we face potential changes that are more drastic than all those we have experienced throughout human history. A few individuals are exhibiting cognitive abilities that will enable mankind to greet this future, or be destroyed by it. Willa Harmon is trying to drag the leading edge of human development across a desert of ignorance like an anchor across the desert. She has worked in secret for twenty years. Her tech is the basis of human advancement. Her secret may be out, and now she's targeted by drug smugglers for crippling their operation, and the FBI for how she survived the now she's targeted by drug smugglers for snipping their operation, and the FBI for how she survived the smugglers, the smugglers want her dead, and the FBI want her in prison. It's up to Palmer Fox to keep Willa alive and free, but she's the most capable adversary he's ever faced. The next tier in the evolution of human society will either rise or fall on Willa's fate.
