Written by a child author who is in primary school, I HAVE THINGS THAT MOVE is the second children's book written for and by children in the bilingual Chinese-English DOTS AND FRIENDS series, which is published in separate editions in Traditional Chinese characters as well as Simplified Chinese characters in ebook and paperback formats. The audiobook version is forthcoming in Cantonese, Mandarin and English tracks. To stay tuned, sign up for news: http://eepurl.com/b_etlj In the elementary school author's words: I started writing this book last summer, when my mother was testing my ability to write Chinese characters from memory. She would say the character aloud, use it in a sentence she dictated and ask me to write the character not only correctly but in the right stroke order. Then I started to create my own sentences and write them on the white board. Little by little, I came up with the idea to write this book. My mother helped me make this book possible. Thank you, Mom! Thanks also goes to Grandma, who helped as my Chinese language consultant for things Mom was not certain
