Joy James wants it all: her own business, a man who loves her, and a baby or two. After her plans with one man go up in smoke, she takes advantage of an opportunity, unaware of the way it will change her life forever. Maksim Aristov, torn from his family and country after protecting his lifelong friend, seeks to build a better life in his new country.

When Joy approaches him the night of his friend's wedding, he gives her exactly what she wants, and ends up with more than he bargained for. Will one night of passion lead to a lifetime of regrets or give both of them something they've both wanted their entire lives? Note: this should be read after Mate and Master O, in that order, as this book contains the continuing storylines.
